

Nondiscrimination Notice

Discrimination is Against the Law

Hospice of the Midwest complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

Hospice of the Midwest does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex or sexual orientation.

Hospice of the Midwest:

- Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:
 - Qualified sign language interpreters
 - Written information in other formats; auxiliary aids and services
- Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
 - Qualified interpreters
 - Information written in other languages

If you need these services, contact the Director of Operations of your Hospice of the Midwest agency. If you believe that Hospice of the Midwest has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex or sexual orientation, you can file a grievance with the Director of Operations.

You can file a grievance in person or by mail, fax, or email. If you need help filing a grievance, the Director of Operations is available to help you.
